It is Night and I am alone

(The Words from Ossian)

The MUSIC Composed

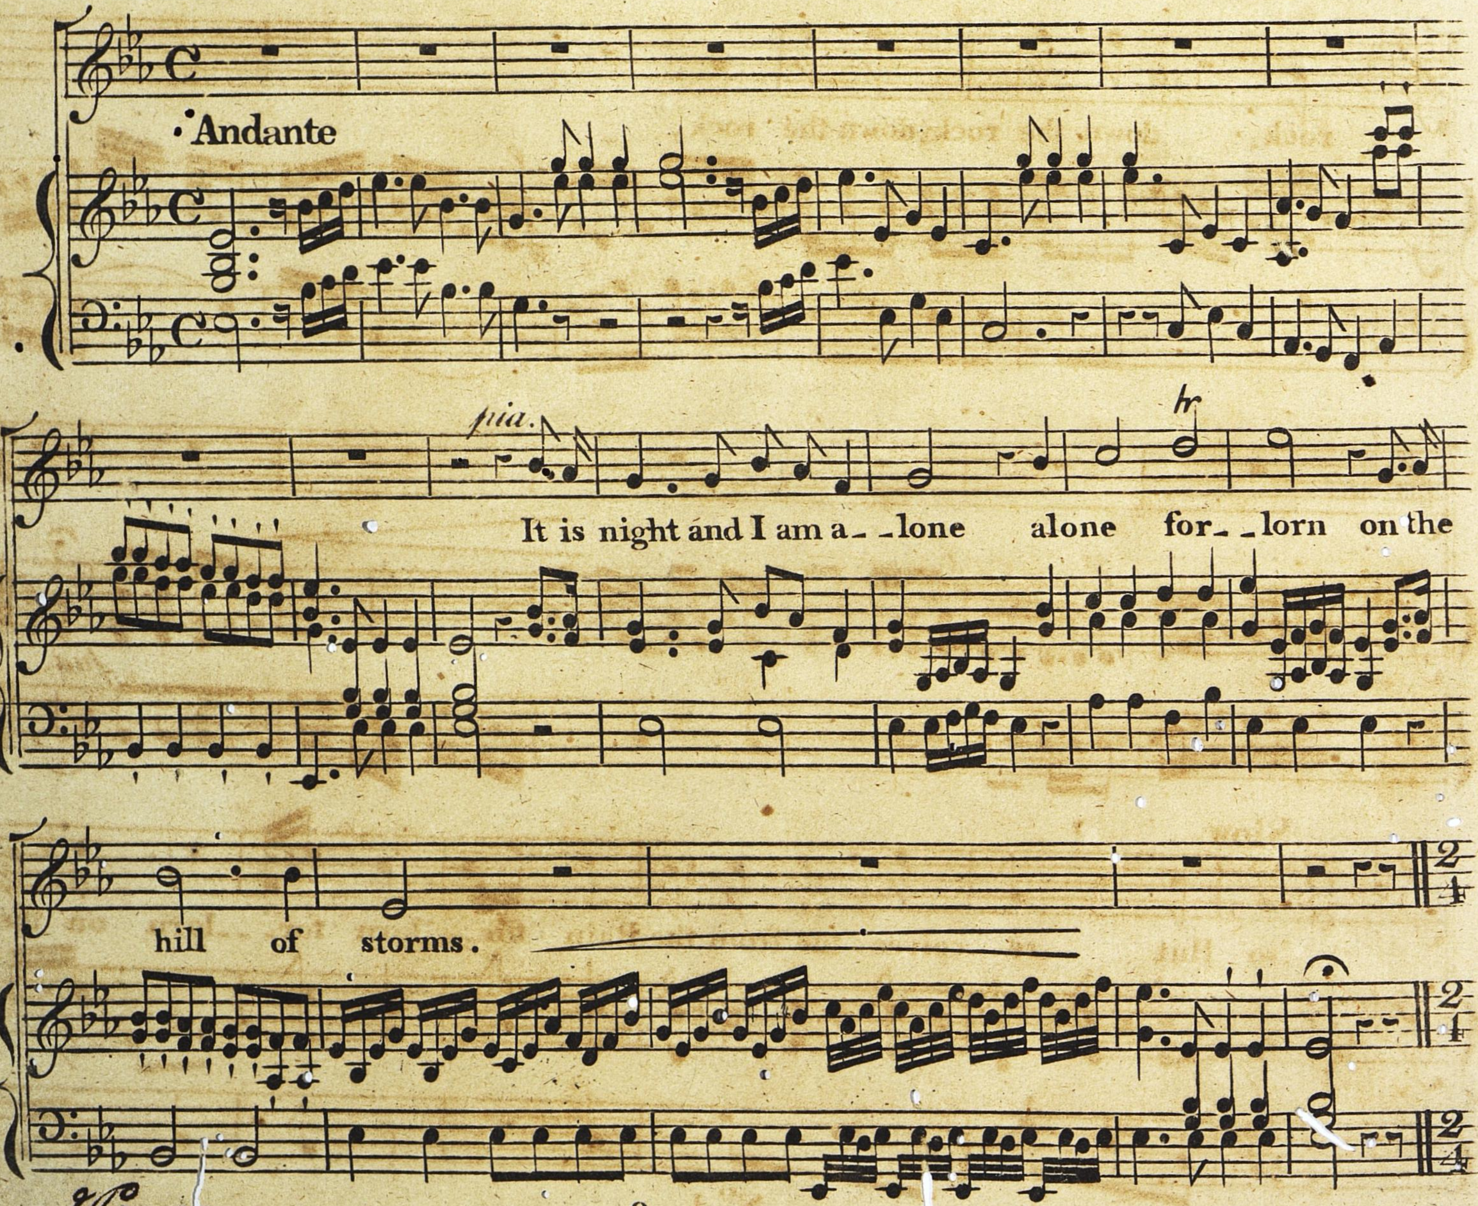
and most Respectfully inscribed to MISS TAYLOR

By I. Percy.

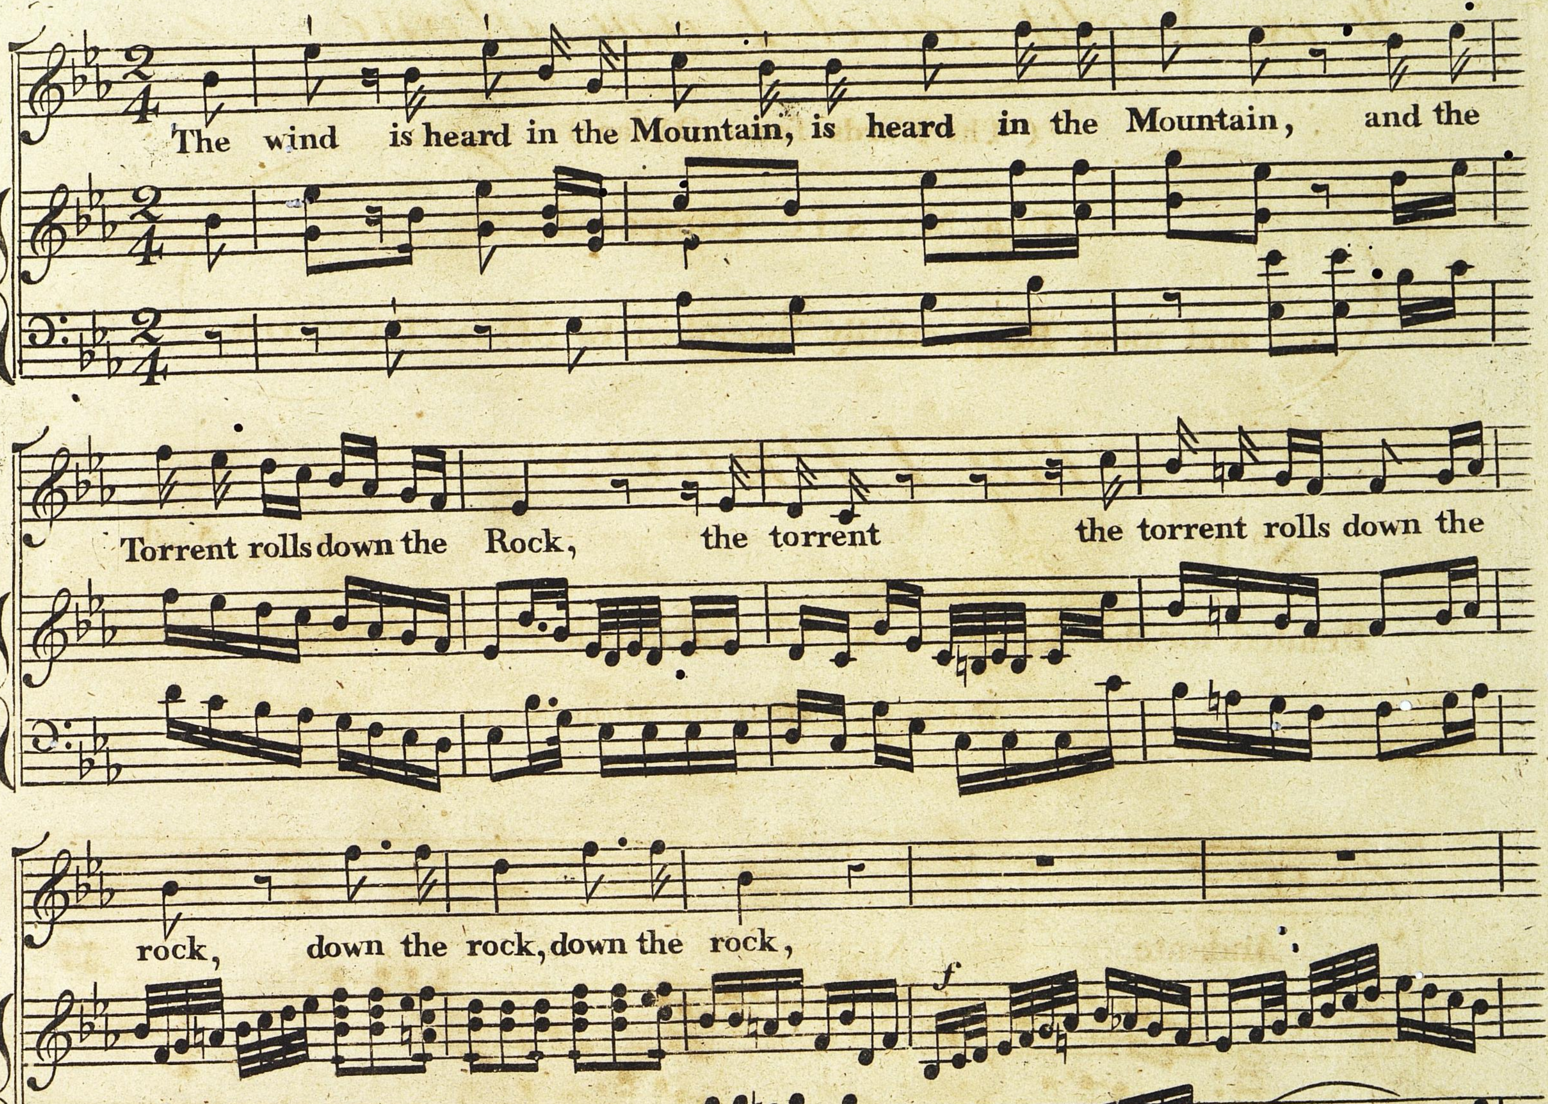
No. 1. Price 2s. 6d.

Printed for the Author No. 13 Tavistock Street Bedford Square.

And to be had at the Music Shops.



J Percy



The wind is heard in the Mountain, is heard in the Mountain, and the Torrent rolls down the Rock, the torrent the torrent rolls down the rock, down the rock, down the rock, f
p f pia.
Slow
No Hut re-ceives me from the Rain for-lorn for-lorn on the hill of the winds forlorn on the hill the hill of the winds.

fp
fp
Vivace
Rise O moon from behind thy Clouds.
Stars of the night appear lead me some light to the place where my love Rests from the toil of the Chace.

Corni his Bow near him unstrung his Dogs panting around - - - - - - - - - panting around him pan- - -ting pp panting panting around.
Siciliana
But here must I sit alone, by the Rock of the mofsy stream, But here must I sit a- -lone by the Rock of the mos- - -sy stream, and hear the N.B. if the foregoing Close is too high this may be sung in its stead